

JANICE GAIL

DRAWING & PAINTING

Janice came to Hawaii more than 30 years ago to paint the beauty of the Island and its people. Her interest in the history of this earthly Paradise, and her love for its diverse population, have fueled her desire to capture the vanishing examples of architecture and ambiance that surround us. Watercolors, Oils, and Pastels are her favored media, often with added papers and fibers in collage. Janice has won numerous honors at Local and Regional Juried Exhibitions, most notably a Purchase Award from the Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts. She gladly accepts commissioned portraits, murals, and design assignments. On Hawaii Island, she is represented by Firehouse Gallery and Gallery of Great Things in Waimea, Taro Patch Gifts in Honokaa and Waipi'o Gallery in Kukuiahae.
