WAC is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting the arts, the encouragement of artists, and providing a forum for art-related community events.

In the Firehouse Gallery Front Gallery "Local Art at Exceptional Prices"

November 29 - December 30, 2017

The Waimea Arts Council is holding its annual show and sale of affordable art from November 29 through December 30. "Local Art at Exceptional Prices" will be on exhibit at the Firehouse Gallery in Waimea.

A range of art from small cards to original paintings, drawings, photography, and jewelry will be available priced from $2.50 to $250.

On Saturday December 2, the gallery will be open from 9 am to 8 pm during the Twilight Christmas Parade. The parade runs from 5:30 - 6:45 pm. There will be coffee, hot cocoa and cookies available. Come enjoy the parade and warm up while browsing the art exhibit.

Volunteers are needed to help man the gallery and serve cookies, coffee and hot cocoa on December 2. We will be open until 8 pm. Please contact Pat Dinsman if you can help out. Mahalo!

In the Firehouse Gallery Back Gallery "Small Solos"

November 29 - January 20, 2017

During the month of December and through January 20, we will feature five of our member artists. Merna Joan Watta works in acrylics and Marie Kinchla uses oils, watercolor and pastels. Janice Gail uses many media including oil, pastel, pen or pencil and watercolor, while Pat Dinsman works in oil, and mixed media as well as doing photography and jewelry. Bill Bishop has unique oil paintings and sculpture.

Reminder

While doing your on-line Christmas shopping this year, remember to use Amazon Smile if you are buying from Amazon.com. If you choose Waimea Arts Council as your non-profit recipient, a portion of your qualified purchases will be donated to

The next meeting of the Board of Directors will be Saturday, December 7 at 1:30. They will be discussing ideas for increasing foot traffic into the gallery, so if you have any thoughts on this or would like to join in the discussion, please contact Pat Dinsman.

Artists' Get-Together

The Artists' Get-Together has been cancelled for this month due to holiday schedules. It should resume after the holidays.

The Firehouse Gallery is the most visible project of the Waimea Arts Council, an all-volunteer non-profit organization that sponsors programs, exhibits and education related to the arts.

It is strategically located in the heart of downtown Kamuela in South Kohala's historic old fire station, at the crossroads of Mamalahoa Highway and Lindsey Rd. (Hwy. 19 and 190), across from the Waimea Shell Station. Exhibits change monthly. The gallery is open Wed.-Fri. and Sun., 11 am to 3 pm, and Sat., 10 am to 3 pm. There is plenty of free parking behind the gallery.

Is there something you'd like to see in this newsletter? Please let us know. If you have anything to share about your art activities outside WAC, please send to Julie McCue at jmccue@hawaii.rr.com. Issues come out at the end of each month, and deadline is the 20th of the month.

Community Events coming up...

Kahilu Theatre 885-6868 kahilutheatre.org

Dec. 9-10, 7 pm Sat., 3 pm Sun. Waimea Community Chorus - Holiday Favorites! The sixty-voice Waimea Community Chorus accompanied by a 16-piece orchestra will perform "Holiday Favorites" for their 24th Annual Holiday Concert. Selections will range from classical to popular, from Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" to Leroy Anderson's "Sleigh Ride." Also, there will be a sing-a-long of favorite songs to celebrate the season. $25/$20/$15

Dec. 16, 7 pm. Kahalanui - Hawaiian Swing Band. Kahalanui (The Big Dance) is an inspiration passed down three generations from Grandfather Robert Kahalanui Naipo, to Dad Rogers L.L. Naipo Sr., to Grandson and Kahalanui band leader, Lolena Naipo, Jr.

Lolena remembers stories of his Grandfather who was a member of the Royal Hawaiian Band during an era when horns and drums were a part of Hawaiian music. "Throughout Hawaii in the 1920s and 1930s, one could find orchestras playing Hawaiian Swing and the house would be jumping. Kahalanui borrowed from these influences and performs classic Hawaiian songs in a syncopated style making Hawaiian Swing vibrant and alive in Hawaii today." $68/$48/$25

Dec. 19, 7 pm. Streetlight Cadence. Winners of two successive NaHoku Hanohano Awards for Alternative Album of the Year, Streetlight Cadence is an alternative folk pop trio. Jonathon (violin), Jesse (accordion), and Brian (cello) began as street performers in Honolulu. The group is known for its unique instrumentation and arrangements in their music. Jonathon, Jesse and Brian can be described as fun-loving and energetic, and demonstrate an enormous love for music and friendship in their live performances. $25

Dec. 21-23, Thur., Fri. 6 pm, Sat. 2 pm. The Nutcracker Ballet. West Hawaii Dance Theatre & Academy accompanied by the Kamuela Philharmonic Orchestra presents a visually stunning family-friendly holiday festive production with more than 70 local dancers, and guest dancers from Bolshoi Ballet, Maui Academy of Performing Arts, Matsuyama Ballet and Carolina Ballet. $38/$31/$23

and Best Wishes for a Joyful New Year*

11th Annual Paradise Studio Art Tour

The 11th Annual Paradise Studio Art Tour is being held on the first weekend in December, the 2nd and 3rd, 10 to 4 each day.

The public is invited to visit artists in their home studios in Hawaiian Paradise Park, Keaau. There is no charge. Seven studios with 25 local artists are featuring oil painting, watercolors, pastels, inks, acrylic, lava looking cement, jewelry making, pottery, silk painting, fashion art, mosaics, photography and more. Various demonstrations are ongoing. For a brochure and map, call 982-5150 or go to www.paradisestudiotour.com.

Each year the Artist Collective members donate 10% of their sales to Puna District public high schools for art supplies. Nearly $14,000 has been donated to Pahoia and Keaau high schools and the Hawaii Academy for Arts & Sciences. This helps with the art department budget cuts of consumable resources, such as paper, drawing pencils, brushes, paint, and clay. The collective believes by presenting students with hands on materials and opportunities to view demonstrations of the creative processes during the tour, the tradition of passing down the model of a successful working artist continues.

"Without art, the crudeness of reality would make the world unbearable."
~George Bernard Shaw
