

CHRIS KUTLER

PHOTOGRAPHY AND PAINTING

Chris Kutler has enjoyed photographing nature since her first photography class in high school. Shortly after moving to Hawaii in 2008, she took up watercolor and started exploring the ways in which she can use color, texture, and shapes to capture the essence of Hawaii's beauty. Since then, she has also taken up pen and wash and oils. Chris especially enjoys painting on location, from the warm sandy beaches to the cool upcountry cattle ranches and the picturesque small towns in between.
