New Members

January 2 - 26

During the month of January, the Firehouse Gallery will feature an exhibit of the works of the newest artist members of the Waimea Arts Council. All are accomplished in their medium and we are delighted to welcome them to our organization.

Angela Andreoff, a contemporary artist, creates most of her art using acrylic paint or oil pastels.

Reception
Sat., Jan. 5
3-5 pm

David Blevins is a wood crafter and often uses koa wood scraps to make his amazing quality boxes and other wood creations.

Carolyn Dierickx creates fashionable earrings and necklaces in sterling silver and gold using real gemstones and Swarovski crystals.

Kimberly Horn creates unique beaded bracelets, leis and other jewelry.

Joshua Gerbert's painting style is distinctive. His use of vivid and brightly colorful acrylic paintings are mostly of Hawaiian nature.

Susan Grant works mostly in transparent watercolor, with botanicals and animals being among her favorite subjects.

Sui Lan Gomez works mostly in pastels and occasionally in watercolor or colored pencils. She has an affinity for drawing animals but is also enamored with the beauty of Hawai'i and enjoys drawing and painting plants and animals of Hawai'i.

And last but not least, the Arts Council has gained four very talented photographers in Shirley De Rego, Keahi Incillio, Peter French and Robert Shallenberger.

There will be a reception for the artists at the Firehouse Gallery on Saturday, January 5 from 3-5 pm. Friends and the public are cordially invited.

SAVE THE DATE!

Sunday, 13 January 2019
3-5 PM

At the Senior Center (the old courthouse building) behind the Waimea Arts Council buildings.

As we have many new members, both participating and supporters, we thought it would be fun and useful to have a social afternoon where we all gather to socialize, get to know each other, and talk about the past/present/future of the Arts Council - who we are, what our goals are, what our needs are. We hope many of you will find this enjoyable, entertaining and useful. We urge you all to attend. We'll send a reminder and a few more details as the date approaches. We're hoping to have as many members as possible!

Barbara Schaefer and Trish Helms Kimball

CALL for Big Island ARTISTS

WAIMEA ARTS COUNCIL (WAC) again hosts an island-wide competition for all artists. This is a HEADS UP as April 4~6, 2019 are the entry dates. As in the past it's a theme oriented competition offering $1300 in sponsored prizes.

The theme? PORTAL. Just how you choose to interpret PORTAL is up to you with one caveat: the invited jurist, SALLY FRENCH from Kauai, must see or feel the theme within your artwork.

Take-in and pick up of art will be in both Hilo and Kona as well as two days of take-in at the Firehouse Gallery, WAC's exhibition space at the intersection of Routes 19 and 190.

In addition to the above cash prizes the State Foundation for Art and Culture has been invited to preview the collection hoping they will again select work for the Hawaii State Art Museum collection.

Rules and entry forms are found at: www.waimeaartscouncil.org Waimea Arts Council is a registered 501(c)3

Note to all WAC artists with art on exhibit in the gallery...

The April "Portal" themed juried show is going to utilize the entire gallery for the exhibit. Therefore, it will be "Spring Cleaning" time! All gallery participating artists will be asked to remove their items and take a good look at what they have in there. Hopefully, it will give you a month to freshen up your offerings.

This is a Heads UP! More information will be sent out closer to the show.

Community Events coming up...

Kahilu Theatre 885-6868 kahilutheatre.org

Jan. 5 - 7 pm. Straight No Chaser - One Shot Tour. If the phrase "male a cappella group" conjures up an image of students in blue blazers, ties, and khakis singing traditional college songs on ivied campuses... think again. Straight No Chaser (SNC) are neither strait-laced nor straight-faced, but neither are they vaudeville-style kitsch. Straight No Chaser is the real deal, the captivating sound of nine unadulterated human voices coming together to make extraordinary music that is moving people in a fundamental sense... and with a sense of humor. $69.50/$59.50/ $39.50

Jan. 6 - 7 pm. JP Sears Live. Comedian and You Tube superstar, JP Sears is an emotional healing coach, international teacher, speaker at events, world traveler, and curious student of life. His work empowers people to live more meaningful lives. JP speaks and performs at numerous events, conferences, festivals, and retreats around the world. $48.25/$45.25/$42.25

Jan. 10 - 7 pm. Big Bad Voodoo Daddy. 2018 marks the 25th anniversary of Big Bad Voodoo Daddy's remarkable arrival onto the music scene. Since it's formation in the early nineties in Ventura, California, the band has toured virtually nonstop, performing on average over 150 shows a year, and has produced a sizeable catalog of recorded music, with sales of over 2 million albums to date. Early on, they reminded the world that it was still cool to swing, blending a vibrant fusion of the classic American sounds of jazz, swing, and dixieland, with the energy and spirit of contemporary culture. $68/$48/$28

Jan. 12 - 7 pm, Jan. 13 - 4 pm. Get Happy: Angela Ingersoll sings Judy Garland. Award winning artist Angela Ingersoll presents a tribute to the great Judy Garland. "Ingersoll conducts a veritable master class with her acting, and vocally her performance is equally as astounding. She dives into each of the songs with an intoxicating blend of mesmerizing vocal prowess and raw emotion, just as Garland herself was able to do." $68/$48/$28

Jan. 19 - 7 pm. Kenry Kapono & Malani Bilyeu. Henry Kapono will host three duo concerts sharing the stage with some of his legendary contemporaries, with songs and stories about music that has been part of our lives for a long time. The artists will play individual hits then collaborate on a fun jam. Per Henry, "Guaranteed to leave people smiling and happy." $68/$48/$28

Jan. 23 - 7 pm. Giordano Dance Chicago. Giordano Dance Chicago is America's original jazz dance company, captivating audiences worldwide with dynamic performances and the diversity and wide appeal of its repertoire. $68/$48/$28

Jan. 27 - 4 pm. En Pointe Brilliance - Kamuela Philharmonic Orchestra. The Philharmonic's winter concert features the winners of its annual youth concerto competition—always a crowd favorite—highlighting three of Hawai'i's young incredibly talented musicians. En Pointe Brilliance also includes Tchaikovsky's Swan Lake Suite and Ponchielli's Dance of the Hours. $50/$40/$30/$15

Jan. 29 - 7 pm. John Sebastian. Over four decades the contributions of John Sebastian have become a permanent part of our American musical fabric. His group The Lovin' Spoonful played a major role in the mid-60's rock revolution. You know the songs by heart: Do You Believe in Magic?, You Didn't Have To Be So Nice, Daydream, Summer In The City. $68/$48/$28

A Note from the Editor:

This will be the last newsletter I put together for the Waimea Arts Council. For personal reasons, I have made the decision to resign the position of Editor, as well as website manager.

Chris Kutler will be taking over the duties for the website and will do a much better job than I ever could, as she is very knowledgeable in this area. As you know, she has been teaching seminars on building your own website.

I don't know if anyone has volunteered to take over the newsletter yet, so maybe it's time to get creative and come up with another way to communicate with members. If you have an idea, please discuss it with someone on the board.

I want to thank everyone who has helped out over the past 7 years, getting me stories to include, as well as photos, etc., and thanks to Carolyn Lancaster who has handled the mailings to those who don't have email addresses.

I'll still be a part of WAC and continue to docent, so will be involved in the gallery in that way.

Aloha, Julie
