

Waimea Arts Council's
All Hawaii Island Juried Art Competition Prospectus
HUAKA'I*

July 1 - August 28, 2022 • Firehouse Gallery, Kamuela, Hawai'i
Entry Dates: June 25 & 26, 2022

This juried competition, open to all Big Island artists, pushes participant creativity beyond the norm.
The invited Jurors: Stephen Freedman and Philippe F. Nault

 Huaka'i translates to journey, trip, voyage.*

The competition asks Hawaii-Island artists to express this theme through their art. Not an easy task, but WAC's challenge is met with cash prizes totaling $1,200 and will be solely awarded at the Juror's discretion.

The Hawaii State Foundation for Culture and the Arts (SFCA) has been invited to the show to acquire works for the State collection. Past juried shows have seen numerous artworks purchased by SFCA for the Hawaii State Museum collection and by the viewing public.

About the Judges: Stephen Freedman, a third-generation potter/sculptor, has been working out of a Big Island studio since 1991. Previously he'd been exhibiting pieces produced at his LA studio. Work by Stephen has been exhibited in galleries and museums throughout the United States and in Japan, China, and Australia. Numerous public and private collections contain pieces he's produced over the past five decades. Currently, his focus has been on architectural scale vessels using a combination of wheel and hand-building techniques. Many of the recent pieces are finished with multiple layers of Chinese and Japanese stoneware glazes.

Philippe F. Nault came to Hawai'i in 1992 and is well-known for his abstract paintings. His work has been shaped by the primeval forces of nature and his exploration of Hawaiian indigenous ontology. They address a perception of the world in general, a Landscape of the Self as a core concept of his artistic career. Prior to arriving in Hawai'i Mr. Nault created a number of oversized artworks both abroad and in the US. Three of these were commissioned by the French State for public installation. He is also an interpreter of Hawaiian culture and a practitioner of CHADO, Japan's traditional tea ceremony. www.philippenault.com

Open to all Big Island Artists 18 and older.
